

Water Lilies

Vasco Road/East Avenue in Livermore, Calif.

“Water Lilies” was designed by nine Granada High School art students under the guidance of Art Instructor, Laura Thournir. A dedication ceremony, hosted by the Livermore Amador Valley Transit Authority in collaboration with the City of Livermore Commission for the Arts and the Livermore Joint Unified School District was held at the bus shelter on May 29, 2013. The students were recognized for their artistic abilities and contributions to the collection.
